The Committee shall report regularly to the Board in accordance with the terms of this Charter.

In discharging its role, the Committee is empowered to retain the services of such advisors, consultants and counsel as it determines is necessary to carry out its duties. The Company shall provide funding required by the Committee to discharge its responsibilities, including the payment of fees and expenses of advisors, consultants and counsel retained pursuant to this Charter.

Composition and Qualifications

The Committee shall be composed of a minimum of four members of the Board. Each member of the Committee shall, in the judgment of the Board, meet the independence and other requirements of the laws, rules and regulations applicable to the Company, including the requirements of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), UK Financial Conduct Authority's Disclosure Guidance and Transparency Rules ("DTRs"), New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE") and Euronext Paris ("Euronext").

The members of the Committee and its Chairman shall be selected by the Board upon the recommendation of the Company's Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and shall serve at the pleasure of the Board. Any vacancy on the Committee shall be filled by, and any member of the Committee may be removed by, an affirmative vote of a majority of the Board. In addition to meeting the independence requirements of the laws, rules and regulations applicable to the Company, the majority of Committee members must be (a) an "outside director" for purposes of Section 162(m) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code, (b) a "non-employee" director for purposes of Rule 16b-3 of the Exchange Act, and (c) not party to any interlocking arrangement that would require disclosure in the Company's Proxy Statement. If all the members of the Committee do not satisfy the foregoing requirements, then such directors who do meet such requirements will comprise a subcommittee, which will be responsible for taking action with respect to matters involving Section 162(m) and Section 16b-3 of the Exchange Act.

Notwithstanding the foregoing membership requirements, no action of the Committee will be invalid by reason of any such requirement not being met at the time such action is taken.

The Committee may also meet at the request of (i) its Chairman, (ii) a majority of its members or (iii) the Chairman of the Board or Chief Executive Officer of the Company.

Only members of the Committee shall have the right to attend Committee meetings. However, members of management, including audit and legal, and representatives from outside consultants and the Company's independent registered public accounting firm may be invited to attend meetings at the request of the Committee Chairman. The Committee Chairman will, in consultation with the other members of the Committee and appropriate officers of the Company, establish the agenda for each Committee meeting.

The Committee will appoint a secretary, who will attend the meetings and maintain minutes of its meetings, and the Chairman of the Committee will report regularly to the Board about the Committee's deliberations, conclusions and recommendations.

A majority of the Committee members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The action of a majority of those present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Committee. Committee members can be represented by proxy at a meeting. A proxy must be a member of the Board and satisfy applicable Committee qualification requirements.

The Committee may take action by unanimous written consent, by conference communication or in any other manner in which the Board is permitted to meet under law or the Company's Articles of Association, and such participation in a meeting shall constitute presence in person.

Periodically, the Committee shall meet separately with management in separate executive sessions to discuss any matter that the Committee or management believes should be discussed privately.
